Till There Was You S. Anne Gardner

Julia is a woman used to power and not afraid to use it or impose her will to get her way. She appears to have the world but a part of her is empty and cold as frozen tundra. Julia rides in the mornings to clear her head and to make plans for what she is about to set in motion.

Theodora, know as Teddy is trying to put together a marriage filled with uncertainties. She felt once upon a time that she would have a great love but that has eluded her.

One morning these two women meet and from the first instance, it is explosive. The attraction is undeniable, the fears very real, and the end without question will change them both forever.
