Reflections of Nebulous Eternal: Sporadic Thoughts of a Splintered Soul Vol. 1 (Volume 1) James Cone
The Reflections of Nebulous Eternal is a selection of poems written by a soul that left the spirit realm and entered earth to gain a deeper insight to itself, and as it evolves and awakens, the spirit tries to relay the information to the rest of humanity. This is a daunting task, and many awakened souls band together to push the world into a brighter future. The reason earth is called nebulous eternal is because a nebula is foggy/hazy, and this world is exactly that-a haze. And it lasts for eternity because too many humans would rather use their knowledge, skill, power, and wealth to feed their greed and massage their egos. Those who are awake aim to counter this behavior-if not for today's, then for tomorrow's generation. So these are the sporadic thoughts of a splintered soul dwelling in nebulous eternal, on a mission to gather with like-minded spirits to educate the children and spread love, humility, and compassion to the world.
