You can lose yourself in repetition--quiet your thoughts; I learned the value of this at a very young age. Basketball has always been an escape for Finley. He lives in broken-down Bellmont, a town ruled by the Irish mob, drugs, violence, and racially charged rivalries. At home, his dad works nights, and Finley is left to take care of his disabled grandfather alone. He's always dreamed of getting out someday, but until he can, putting on that number 21 jersey makes everything seem okay. Russ has just moved to the neighborhood, and the life of this teen basketball phenom has been turned upside down by tragedy. Cut off from everyone he knows, he won't pick up a basketball, but answers only to the name Boy21--taken from his former jersey number. As their final year of high school brings these two boys together, a unique friendship may turn out to be the answer they both need.

Mary Barnett:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this [(Boy21)] [By (author) Matthew Quick] published on (June, 2013) can make you sense more interested to read.
