The Bird's Christmas Carol by Kate Douglas Wiggin (Illustrated) Kate Douglas Wiggin

The Bird's Christmas Carol is the story of the Bird family and their youngest child Carol who is born on Christmas. She is a lovely and sweet girl who contracts an unknown disease and becomes bedridden. Even though she is ill Carol remains sweet and generous.

"Perhaps because she was born in holiday time, Carol was a very happy baby. Of course, she was too tiny to understand the joy of Christmas-tide, but people say there is everything in a good beginning, and she may have breathed in unconsciously the fragrance of evergreens and holiday dinners; while the peals of sleigh-bells and the laughter of happy children may have fallen upon her baby ears and wakened in them a glad surprise at the merry world she had come to live in."
