Mass Atrocity: Prevention and Response - A Mass Atrocity Response Operations (Maro) Workshop Report [Enlarged Edition] Dwight Raymond

Foreword: Lgen the Hon. Roméo A. Dallaire, (Ret'd), Senator Former Force Commander United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda - What the Maro Project proposes, and indeed explores in considerable detail, is nothing short of a fundamental shift in thinking from the "whether" to the "how" of intervention. Mass atrocities are operationally unique; this important recognition has paved the path for Maro's adoption into relevant military doctrine and its subsequent-and no less consequential- consideration at the top levels of policy-making. The Workshop convened in December 2010 was an essential step in addressing, among others, what Sarah Sewall called the "Inchoate Middle Ground" between mass atrocity prevention and response, a challenge being tackled presently at different levels and bureaus of the U.S. Government. While much progress has been made in addressing how to shore up this disconnect, much work remains.
