At fifteen he was a member of L.A.'s most powerful street gang, facing murder charges and fighting for his life, both on the streets and in his own household. But on the darkest day of his life, Yousaka Takahashi makes a vow to a dead boy and turns his life around to become David Qin. Just when David's life seems to be on track, however, he meets an alcoholic teenager named Katchoo and falls deeply in love. From a life of violence and incest to one of faith and love, this is the story of one of Strangers In Paradise's most enigmatic characters, David Qin.
