Her loyalty has been abused beyond sane endurance, and Lucinda Loveless can take no more. The causes and men for which she pledged her life are no more, lost to these dark times or abandoned in the name of expediency. Alone, Lucinda may choose her own allies and fight for her own causes. But she will also make her own enemies. For without the protection of the Union, even their most formidable agent, struggling through the snow-bound Western Territories, will find it hard to stand alone.
