Tüm Yönleriyle (Turkish Edition) Mehmet Özcan

This book deals with educational administration as a scientific field. It delves into educational administration, supervision, finance and economics, underlining their international dimension. The research in educational administration has a broad scope because it directly and indirectly touches upon a great many aspects of the educational practice itself. One of the main aims of this book is precisely to help educators and educationalists to appreciate the role played by the administration and to become increasingly aware of its impact on teaching and learning. This study also seeks to help young scientists and specialists to better understand educational administration.
