Do you want to learn how to improve in your studies at GVSU? 4 Point GVSU! is a recent graduate's guide to reaching your academic goals whatever they may be.

4 Point GVSU! is the one and only guide on how to succeed at GVSU from a student's perspective and for students. It includes updated techniques on how to succeed in school as Mathew graduated in December of 2011.

The book explains the exact strategies Mathew used to turn around a 2.9 GPA freshman year to end school on a streak of 26 consecutive A's. The book applies to all majors and will be helpful if you are an incoming freshman, a prospective student or current student at this outstanding university.

The book includes: Planning techniques, how to get all the classes you want, how to get A's regardless of the course, and secrets GVSU advisors may not have told you.

Is your time valuable? This book knows that you have tons of other things going on in your life. The length is 56 pages and is written straight to the point to save you from reading another large book. The large print is designed to enhance reading comprehension and ease of reading.
