THREE? SHE WILL... SHE WON'T, SHE SHOULDN'T... SHOULD SHE?

Veronica is a conservative girl with much resistance to authority, and has good control over her emotions, then she meets the Mr. Bill Hilton.

The possessive dominant who must have what he wants. He craves her, craves her totally and will not be denied even in public and more.

He needs total control of her at will. He is a strict controller and as abnormal as Veronica thought she was, no way would she let him have total domination in the Cafe! Not with so many people there. Would she? He had to be out his mind. His orders are out of this world, and as she was ordered, she was wearing nothing under her skirt to the cafe. How far will he ever be able to lead her with her resistance to authority?

EXCERPT

It was a known fact, Claire thought. I was in love with Bill. So madly in love that I would have done anything he asked of me. When I had been promoted from his secretary to assistant HR manager, I had not wanted to take it, but I had to, I needed the money. Adam and I had been saving for our dream wedding. I knew I'd never in a million years be able to be with Bill, but a tiny part of me had always hoped he could've been mine. Hoped that one day he'd realise he was madly in love with me all along and didn't know it. But, this wasn't the movies, and in life you had to make do with what you had, make limeade if you couldn't get the lemon. I knew it, I was a hopeless romantic but I still hoped.

That part of me died when I met his other lover, Veronica. And now this is so crazy because this was exactly what he wanted . . .
