What is it like for a woman to do a man's work, and do it better? Then have to work with him day in and day out. Or to have to go home to a husband who asks how her day went. Does she mention anything about the supervisor who patted her rear end or the inspector who wants to inspect more than her work? Moreover, she works in a factory so immense that she's never met everyone. But she knows someone is trying to destroy what she's building. It may just be the person working next to her, or the supervisor or inspector... or her best friend. What is the chance that you are this woman? In Pink Collar Workers, you may meet a woman who does the same work as you. You can just hear yourself saying, "Tomorrow is payday. Another day of trying to please the supervisor, ignoring a married man's lusty grin and tolerating that know-it-all worker". But it's a paycheck and anything to get that damned plane built...well, almost anything.
