Agent Hill

The GSF is a covert spy agency that has a presence all over the world. They operate beyond the scope of governments, corporations and politics. They're the good guys who make sure the bad guys don't blow anything up.

Agent Sarah Hill loves her job. As the quick witted, fast talking number one agent at the GSF, Agent Hill has to balance locating the mastermind behind the global attack on the power grid and finding her brother and his family. But for her, those missions are one in the same.

Rick Demps deceived some of the most powerful nations in the world to create the program "Global Power", which has the ability to control every power grid in every first world country across the planet. Now, he'll only turn the power on to the highest bidder, unless Sarah can get to him first.

Exiled

Limited water. Limited resources. No help. Brooke Fontanne has to find a way to cross the massive sea of sand that is the Mojave Desert. And with the Southwestern United States now exiled from the Union in wake of the water crisis the entire area is in chaos. Brooke is forced to battle not just the desert elements, but gangs and marauders looking to take whatever they want.

Political factions are at odds with each other as Mexico is greedily eyeing the now unclaimed territory. Some congressman are using the opportunity to further exploit resources that may lie elsewhere, with Congressman Jones leading the push.

Brooke is caught up in the cross hairs of both sides as the repercussions of Washington ripple through the country. The one light at the end of the tunnel is North Carolina, where her sister is waiting for her. She just has to survive the desert first.
