Amanda's Lust (Erotic Horror, Bondage) (The Seven Carnal Sins Book 1) Tiga Monroe

Warning: The following story contains sexually explicit scenes and is intended for mature audiences.

Lust is Amanda's sin of choice. She loves men, sex, and all things carnal and kinky. After a frustrating dry spell, she and her friends go out for a night of club hopping and man hunting.

She gets more than she bargained for when the hunky stranger at the bar turns out to be a pheromone-producing demon intent on teaching her the error of her sinful ways.

Excerpt:

"So, Amanda, what do you think?"

"What do I think?" My throat was suddenly very dry, my hands were clammy, did he really expect to be using all this stuff with me? I might like a lot of sex, but the sex I do enjoy is typically pretty vanilla. My legs shook and I didn't know whether I wanted to bolt from the room and forget this ever happened or if I wanted to give into my curiosity.

There were things even I couldn't identify, who wouldn't be a little curious? Besides, after the taxi ride over here I only wanted him more and I knew he had so much more to give me. I didn't come this far to chicken out now.

"You seem nervous," he said gently as he kissed my neck.

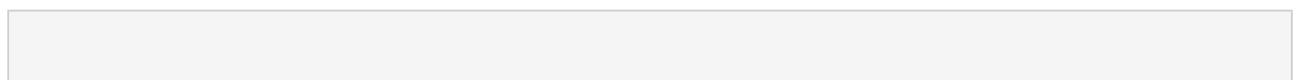

"I just..." There had been more words to that sentence, but his kisses made my brain fuzzy.

"You just what?" He asked, taking my shirt off, freeing my aching breasts.

"I..." I gasped when his mouth found my nipple, all thoughts leaving my mind.

My hand reached for the door knob, this was too much. He was doing something to my brain, I couldn't think, I couldn't talk, he hadn't even touched below my waist yet. His hands worked deftly to remove my skirt, I realized my panties had been left in the cab, and he knelt on the ground in front of me.

The cool door pressed into my bare back, I couldn't back away any further and he was still pursuing me. I couldn't find the words to tell him to slow down; even if I could I don't think my body would let me. From head to toe I felt like I was on fire.
