Love Storm (Western Historical Romance) is the fourth book in the Leap of Love Series.

Boyd Abbott is one of ten children. His parents had all boys, and the Abbott clan is well known in their town. Born and raised in South Carolina, Boyd has never known life anywhere else. He longs for adventure and after some of his older brothers move away and his parents pass away, Boyd decides that it is his turn to see the world.

Boyd sets out with his twin brother Beau. The two are as much alike as they are different. Beau is the rebel with the free spirit. Boyd is the thinker who longs to find out what life has to offer so that he can spread his wings.

Boyd and Beau are both offered the opportunity of a lifetime, and decide to move to Arizona to become U.S. Marshals. Once they get there, they don't have time to even unpack. They are sworn in immediately, and set out on their first assignment: to locate the kidnapped daughter of a rich man.

Working as a U.S. Marshal may be exactly what Boyd needs to fulfill his need for adventure, but he knows that he is still missing something. The love of a good woman.

Boyd comes face to face with Bianca Simmons, daughter of one of the wealthiest men in the area. Bianca is now haunted by knowing that her mother had fallen for an outlaw, but never got to truly find love. She is Boyd's match in every way, but does he have time for love when his life is just getting on track? And can he convince Bianca that they can make it through the storm to find love with one another?
