To Master Key System (Greek Edition) Charles Francis Haanel

The Master Key System is a 1916 published by Charles Francis Haanel teaching to self-knowledge, self-empowerment and self-empowerment. It came in 1912 within the Masonic lodges originally in the form of a 24-week course out before then in 1916 the public was first introduced in the form of a book. The 24 chapters include interesting facts except text each exercise as well as a section with questions and answers - see also the excerpt on the product page. What the Master Key particularly (valuable) makes the system so, the systematic structure of the acquired knowledge, as well as the exercises. Gradually leads Charles Haanel the students to matter zoom, giving him time to reflect and to review the learned. He explains the relationships between what we call "God" or "Universal Consciousness", and us, the individual. The latter is the channel through which the universal expression gives and the Master Key System tells us exactly how it comes to this expression. The Master Key System revolves around the truth. You learn what is truth and what it means to express them. You will learn the fine art of becoming one-with the object of your thoughts. You learn a desire as an already existing fact to see and to feel truly. Books and teachings that have dealt with this topic, there are a dime a dozen. In my view, however, the Master Key System is the most useful guide to a new self, and thus a new life. No one before has so systematically built it and above all, easy and positively explains how creation works and how we, as individuals, we can take advantage of this, without, however, take advantage of others. The Master Key System to study and integrate in life is to become an outstanding personality - a personality that is full of self-confidence, courage and drive. As a result of applying the principles learned in the MKS and laws of man is so full of energy that he is a magnet for all things beautiful, love and Benevolent. At the same time he is at the service of humanity, showing his humility before creation and proceeds responsibly through life. The study requires discipline and concentration. The exercises are an integral part and are of major importance, for it is through them that the true consciousness expansion and reprogramming of the subconscious mind takes place. Alone to read the book, though several times, there will be little, except a certain intellectual satisfaction. Although in recent years a lot has been added to knowledge, the Master Key System is still relevant today as ever. What Charles Haanel time already wrote, nowadays is even more and more important. Old systems and structures that were not created for the benefit of all, fall in on itself - which is everywhere apparent. At the same time accelerating the development of consciousness many people forces them to accumulate, reorient, that is to rethink and renegotiate because the way we have lived, can not and will not continue. It can be said to the Master Key System much , but the real benefit comes from the study itself. So, put on your strength and live a life of which you had not even dreamed of before. It is to you. The legacy waiting for you battle it. This step you need but do yourself - it can and will remove you anyone. I guarantee you though, that you will never regret this step into a new life. Quite the contrary. If you even remotely that happens, what has happened in my life and continues to do, then you will be glad and grateful that you've followed the Master Key System. - Now also in Greek -
